

BEHIND THE SEAS FEEDING TOUR

□ Description

- Get the opportunity to join our aquatic staff and animals for brunch on our Behind the Seas Feeding Tour. You will start with a small guide around our back-animal care area. After you will proceed to follow your guide to the kitchen and participate in prepping the food for that day, each preparation is made of restaurant quality seafood. You will get the chance to observe when our staff weighs and records how much food each tank receives as well as a close interaction of target feeding specific aquatic exhibits with a variety of fish.

□ Highlights

- Get a closer look at each animal and their behavior during feeding time.
- Go behind the scenes of our facility and learn the importance about each animal you participate to feed.
- Observe positive reinforcement and target training with many different species.
- See what is on the menu for that day!
